NEW FACES AT GOULD —SIX NEW INSTRUCTORS

Gould began its 142nd year with six new instructors filling vacancies in different departments. The new faculty are relatively young, the average age being under 30, but this does not, however, detract from their efficiency and experience.

The veteran members of the new staff are Marvin Ouwinga and A. James Fiske. Fiske is a graduate of Manhattan College, worked as a safety engineer for ten years before entering the teaching profession and becoming a teacher of chemistry and physics. Prior to coming to Gould, he taught at Mexico and Dixfield High Schools and eight years at nearby Telstar Regional High School. Fiske was elected Maine Teacher of the Year in 1970 and received the Innovative Teacher Award from the American Association of Physics Teachers in 1973. He is currently the editor of the publication, the Physics Teacher.

EDUCATION-WORK COUNCIL TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING WEDNESDAY, OCT. 12

The first annual meeting of the Bethel Area Community Education-Work Council is being held Wednesday evening, Oct. 12, 7:30 p.m., at the Sunday River Inn, on the road to the Sunday River Ski Area in Newry.

The Bethel Area Community Education-Work Council is a group of concerned citizens organizing for the purpose of identifying the process our young people go through in moving from education to the world of work and to devise means of making that transition process more rewarding for youth and more productive for the community.

The purpose of the annual meeting is to formally organize the council, adopt by-laws, and elect a Board of Directors. The tentative agenda for the meeting includes the following items: Welcome and Introductory Remarks; Purpose and Objectives of the Bethel Area Community Education-Work Council; Establishing Council Membership; Presentation and action on the proposed council by-laws; Nomination and Election of the Board of Directors; Closing Remarks and Adjournment.

A short meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors is planned immediately following the annual meeting to elect officers and establish regular meeting dates. Copies of the proposed by-laws are available in the Council office at Telstar Regional High School and will be mailed to interested citizens for their review prior to Wednesday's meeting. Copies may be requested by calling 824-2338. Citizens interested in the Education-Work Council are urged to attend.

NEWRY POSTMASTER TO RETIRE FRIDAY

Robert T. Davis, Newry, is retiring as Postmaster on Friday, Oct. 7, completing nearly 39 years of service. He assumed charge of the Post Office, which was then called North Newry on Nov. 1, 1938. The name was changed to Newry in 1953. During most of these years he was assisted by his wife, Bertha, until her fatal illness in 1975.

Members of the Davis family have served Newry and surrounding communities since 1893, when an uncle, Charles Davis, then a resident of Grafton, successfully bid the Star Route from Lakeside, N. H., to Bethel, Maine, serving Post Offices on the way at Upton, Grafton, Newry (then North Newry), and North Bethel. Not long afterwards the route was extended to Errol, N. H. Later the route was shortened, discontinuing service from Upton to Errol, via Lakeside and Cambridge, N. H. Services in 1890s was daily in summer. One driver left Upton about 7 a.m. proceeding to Bethel.

Another driver would leave Bethel on receipt of the mail, thus assuring both delivery and forwarding of mail daily to all concerned. In the winter mail left Upton one day returning from Bethel the next. Horses, of course, were the motive power in those days. The mail was kept at Ralph Kilgore's Tavern in North Newry, and on arriving there the stage would change to fresh horses to keep the mail moving at maximum speed. Later vehicles included the Stanley Steamer and the most dependable Model T Ford. In the winter, during the late 20s the latter was converted to a snowmobile by the addition of lags on the rear and converting to runners on front.

In the beginning, Charles Davis was assisted by his brother, Gerald, and later by his son, Moses. On the death of Charles Davis in 1929, when his bid was unsuccessful, Robert's brother, Earl Davis, was an R. F. D. carrier in the Bethel area for many years. He carried the mail from 1927 until 1963. At first his route was to Albany and Hunt's Corner, and later extended to include South Bethel, East Bethel, and the Middle Intervale areas. Another brother, Leslie, became Postmaster at North Newry in about 1918 or 1919, moving the office from the home of Dennis Kilgore, now the home of Mary Tripp) to its present location on Page Five

Because of Columbus Day, Monday, Oct. 10, correspondents and advertisers are asked to submit material for publication in the Oct. 13 issue of "The Citizen" as early as possible.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

Once each year we usually go to "our" island of North Haven, to watch the rhythm of the sea, listen to the endless crashing of the waves against the rocks, hear the bell buoys near half hidden ledges, and the distant booming of the foghorns on light houses off shore.

We left home early to arrive for the morning ferry at 9:10 a.m. from Rockland, which snuggles down along the shore of Penobscot Bay. In back rise the Camden Hills.

It was a pretty day to chug across the bay, a ride of some over an hour, pass the Rockland Breakwater, and Owl's Head Picture-book Lighthouse. The latter dazzled against the green spruces. Gulls wheeled over head, dories bobbed at their moorings, while power boats were out to haul.

Maine coast places sometimes have curious or romantic names for the islands and ledges such as Mouse, Goose, Sugar Loaves, Fiddler, Drunkard, Saddle, and many more. We passed some of these, for North Haven and Vinalhaven Islands have a scattering of ledges and islets. Both islands are "chewed into" around the edges.

As we arrived, the harbor region seemed like "The Land of Enchantment" for all along the way were spots of beauty unspooled and unchanged.

Our hostess and friend, welcomed us with a dinner of lobster. Lobster, a delight at anytime, but when prepared by an island cook is a food for the epicure. When they emerge from the pot, red, steaming, and fragrant they are at the top, holding honors with any food of the world. A lobster stew or chowder ranks high too. It is super, rightly seasoned, and set for a time to ripen.

We wasted no time but spent the afternoon at the beach and cooked our supper there. We stayed to look out over the glassy water, reflecting even the thinnest clouds stretched across the sunset and the colors of pale blue, rose, and gold. Then came the quick fall of darkness.

One day we went to the "old place" up island and climbed the hill where we had visited so many times over the years. It is one of the most scenic spots on the island. Our friend lived here for nearly 20 years. Alone now, she lives in the village which is more convenient for her. From here a soft breeze usually blew, the little house had plenty of space around it, lovely flowers, and a gorgeous view of the water and sunsets. There were so many things to see; always the fountains of spray, the turning of the tides, the boats, the hills, and the bowing of the sedges in the breeze. So you can understand that she has never lost her love for the upland home.

One night the moon was full and the unearthly white light streamed in at the windows, I wondered how it looked at the various beaches that we had visited. One night of rain drummed on the roof, and the wind howled at the door.

We experienced fog as well as sunshine and rain. On the foggy days the grass plumes bow low, set in gray. No sound of gulls or boats. It is like standing in a world thick with a swirling mass of clouds and nothing to see.

At some time, on most days, we went to the beaches, either to watch the surf or to have lunch. I enjoyed the sandpipers, the loons, and the small noises of the birds in the underbrush, as I went sliding along the beaches.

The loveliest time of the day is an hour or so before sunset. Then the changing colors of the sky and sea range from brilliant colors to muted tones which merge with twilight as darkness falls over land and water. Then appear the lights of Rockland, Camden, and many other places which make the ocean seem studded with blinking fireflies.

We were invited to Bartlett's Harbor to see the Great Horned Owl. He came there with a crippled wing last fall and somehow lived through the winter. Many people have gone there to see him this summer and as we did. We were lucky to find him perched on a branch about 40 feet up from the ground and he was unconcerned at our moving about under his perch. My brother-in-law declared that the only time his eyes moved was when he noticed my white pocketbook. He fell into the water at one time and the man who lived there told us the story of how he was rescued. His wing showed its injury even from a distance and we all wondered if he'd make it through another winter.

Once after a full day we were challenged to play a game of croquet. I had not played since I was a child. It is different, of course, from other outdoor pursuits, un-hurried, and one must keep calm and serene. The comments—caustic, fibing, flattering, and derogatory—must be taken in stride and fun. It was pleasurable recreation on a modest scale.

Our friend is librarian for the Islanders so we visited the lovely rooms with the 9,000 volumes and the collection of artifacts.

The days were busy with many more experiences, too numerous to mention.

Our return trip was rainy and windy. How the trees had changed in the 12 days we were gone. Now we live in a world of color for the with shorter hours. Mr. Davis has served as Postmaster since Nov. 1, 1938.

The Selectmen have received notice that the new Highway Department Truck has arrived. It is expected that the body will be mounted this week, and the truck will be ready for delivery about Oct. 10. It will then be taken to Skowhegan to have the plow and sander mounted. There is slightly over $9,100 in the Highway Equipment Fund and the Town has $17,775 due from the State as reimbursement for loss in taxes under the Tree Growth Tax Law for 1975 and 1976. This is due sometime after Oct. 24, and before the end of the year. The Selectmen have been authorized to use this money to pay the balance due on the truck and plow. A short term loan in the amount of $15,000 will be negotiated, to be repaid when the Tree Growth Refund is received. The Selectmen have filed a claim for $10,580 refund for loss in Taxes for 1977 under the Tree Growth Law. Under the original law this would be due sometime after the latter part of October 1978. Under a law introduced by Rep. Karen L. Brown, Bethel, and passed by the 108th Legislature up to 75% of this is to be repaid within 90 days of filing of the claim, with the balance to be paid late in 1978. This law should make this money available to the Towns a year earlier than under the original law.

GREENWOOD FIRE DEPT. 10 AUXILIARY TO MEET OCT. 10

The Auxiliary of the Greenwood
Fire Department will meet Monday, Oct. 10, at 6:30. There are many matters to be discussed and all members are urged to attend.

Tentative plans have been made to hold a pot luck supper for members, and families of both groups on October 22 and again on December 11. Your help is needed to finalize plans for these popular events.

The group is also planning a fund raising, featuring a Thanksgiving Basket. The proceeds from this will go towards supplying chairs for the fire hall.

A matter of concern to all is the subject of incorporation for the group. All necessary information has been attained by the secretary and now the matter must be voted on. Views and questions are welcome at this important meeting.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST "The Bride and Groom"

The engagement is announced,
the bride to be prepares for her wedding; showers of gifts, new clothing—all in joyous anticipation of being wedded to her love;
the bridegroom, who gently calls
her in loving terms.

So it is with our Lord; His great love for His creatures, ever calling them to be His own.

In His Word, the Bible, He tells us of His love. In the Song of Songs we see a pre-nuptial
song of Christ to His Church:

"His Bride," Rev. 22:17 says "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come.
And let him that heareth say, Come.
And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

Isaiah 61:10 says, "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for He hath clothed me with the garments of salvation. He hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornament and a bride adorneth
herself with her jewels."

Isaiah 62:5, "For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall Thy sons marry Thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice
over thee." 1 John 4:7 "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is
of God; and every one that loveth
is born of God and knoweth God.

NEWRY POSTMASTER RETIRING

location. Not long after this, Leslie took charge of a birch logging job on the Branch, and his mother, Cora E. Davis, became postmistress until her death in 1923. Mrs. Davis' husband, Sumner P. Davis, then acted as replacement until the spring of that year, when Addie Robertson was appointed Postmaster. She served for 15 years, until 1938, when Robert Davis took over the duties. At the time of his appointment, Robert Davis was living in a small house, southerly of the family farm, and moved the office there. In the spring of 1942, he moved the office to its present location. For the present, the Post Office will continue in its present status, with Mrs. Eleanor Davis continuing the family tradition as Officer in Charge.

Formerly the route, being a Star Route, mail was enclosed for each individual family. These bags were placed on a post with a spring fastener, in such a manner that the Star Route Driver could snatch the bags without stopping his vehicle. On the return the bags were hung on the ground or snow, not requiring the carrier to stop along the route. Unless the bags were made of waterproof material the mail might get soaked, or it might be blown away unless the owner was prompt in picking it up. In the 1920s patrons were required to erect mail boxes - to better protect the mail. Mail bags were still used until some 10 years ago, when the Post Office Department requested that bags no longer be used.

For a great number of years, Fourth Class Postmasters' salaries were determined by the amount of stamps sold. He paid himself a commission out of the funds at his Post Office, daily if he so wished. Now the salary is determined by the stamp sales for the previous fiscal year, and the Postmaster is paid by check from a Postal Data Center.

Upon retiring, Mr. Davis plans to spend his future years harvesting and improving his woodlot, and indulging in his hobby as a lapidary when the weather is inclement.

TELSTAR DEFEATS MT. ABRAM IN FOOTBALL ACTION, 21-0

by Greg Roberts

Telstar defeated Mt. Abram at Bethel Saturday 21-0 on a rainy mud soaked field. The Rebels scored first on a drive capped by a four yard run for the score by Chris Mills. The remainder of the first quarter was more or less even with neither side being able to move. Telstar did get a chance though when Tim Tracy recovered a Mt. Abram fumble. Unfortunately the Rebels couldn't capitalize. Second quarter action was wild and woolly with two fumbles and three interceptions. Of the five mistakes only two were by the Rebels. One fumble and one interception. Telstar finally held onto the ball and drove downfield to the Mt. Abram five. There Mike Brooks bulled in for the score. Mike Rosenberg missed the PAT but kicked the first successfully. Late in the third and early fourth quarter Telstar struck again. Starting at their forty yard line they drove to the three yard line where Glenn Dunn drove in for the score. A two point conversion run by Russell Palmer made the score 21-0.

Standout defense by the Rebels handled the Mt. Abram offense. Mike Rosenberg, Mike Brown, and Dick Morton supplied the punch in the middle with the outside going to Rusty Van Deusen who had two big sacks in the fourth quarter.

The cheerleading and halftime show were great as usual despite the weather. Miss Cheryl Lord and the cheering coach and the band is directed by Mr. Heffley.

TELSTAR HAD 4 AND 1 RECORD IN FIELD HOCKEY

by Brenda Cushing

The Telstar girls' field hockey team had a good week with two wins and a postponement. Monday, the girls had a game with Maranacook but the game was postponed because of the weather until Oct. 8.

Wednesday, the girls tromped Hall-Dale 3 to 0. There were two assisted goals made by Pam Bean and Manya Dombkowski and one unassisted goal by Tania Hathaway. The girls played most of the game in the rain and because of this there weren't many spectators.

Friday, the girls had a two hour ride to Madison where they easily won. Pam Bean scored one goal and Manya Dombkowski, high scorer, put in two for a 3 to 0 win.

Saturday, Tania Hathaway, who scored the unassisted goal Wednesday, how she felt about the Telstar team.

She replied, "I feel that even though we have a team with only three seniors, we are going to have a very successful season."

The girls play Messalonskee and Mexico at home and Livorno away next week.
